The Great Apple Adventure

It is a cold morning. The 2 dogs are in the garden. A baby sits on the grass with an apple. The dogs see the apple and they go crazy! They bark and jump around the baby. The baby laughs, but the dogs are too noisy.

The baby drops the apple and starts to cry. The dogs pick up the apple! They all want the apple. One dog takes the apple with its teeth. The other dog runs away with the apple. The baby laughs because the dogs are so funny. The apple is now all messy and juicy.

The kids go out in the yard. They see the dogs. The dogs look angry! The kids laugh and yell, "Stop fighting! It's just an apple!" But the dogs don't listen. They are too excited. The baby laughs. The dogs run in circles around the baby.

The mother says, "Okay, time for breakfast!" The kids ask the mother for juice. The mother says, "I need ice to make it cold!" She opens the window.

A snake is on the table inside the house! The mother yells, "Ahhh!" The dogs stop and bark at the snake. The snake looks angry.

The dogs run to the snake, but the snake runs away. The mother kicks the snake out of the yard. The dogs sit down, tired and happy. The baby stays laughing. The kids are laughing too.

The mother makes delicious breakfast. The kids sit at the table and eat. The dogs relax in the yard, imagining apples. The baby stops laughing, but the dogs are still funny.

It is a perfect, crazy day.

The Great Apple Adventure

It is a cold morning. The 2 dogs are in the garden. A baby sits on the grass with an apple. The dogs see the apple and they go crazy! They bark and jump around the baby. The baby laughs, but the dogs are too noisy. The baby drops the apple and starts to cry. The dogs pick up the apple! They all want the apple. One dog takes the apple with its teeth. The other dog runs away with the apple. The baby laughs because the dogs are so funny. The apple is now all messy and juicy. The kids go out in the yard. They see the dogs. The dogs look angry! The kids laugh and yell, “Stop fighting! It’s just an apple!” But the dogs don’t listen. They are too excited. The baby laughs. The dogs run in circles around the baby. The mother says, “Okay, time for breakfast!” The kids ask the mother for juice. The mother says, “I need ice to make it cold!” She opens the window. A snake is on the table inside the house! The mother yells, “Ahhh!” The dogs stop and bark at the snake. The snake looks angry. The dogs run to the snake, but the snake runs away. The mother kicks the snake out of the yard. The dogs sit down, tired and happy. The baby stays laughing. The kids are laughing too. The mother makes delicious breakfast. The kids sit at the table and eat. The dogs relax in the yard, imagining apples. The baby stops laughing, but the dogs are still funny. It is a perfect, crazy day.